

Learning Support Teacher

Whatever you did for the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me. – Mt 25:40
A basic moral test is how our most vulnerable members are faring. We are instructed to put the needs of the vulnerable first. – United States Conference of Catholic Bishops

Saints Peter & Paul Parish School seeks to fulfill the words of Christ and Church teaching through its Learning Support Program. We are seeking a full-time teacher beginning with the 2020/2021 school year to support students with learning needs and teachers. If you are called to teach children who learn differently, then this position may be for you. It is focused on planning and delivering instruction according to the needs of the students the program serves.

The candidate selected will provide a good Christian model and example, demonstrate a commitment to Christian living, and live a life that is consistent with Church teachings. Key qualifications include:

- Ability to develop positive relationships with students, parents, and staff.
- Employs various teaching techniques, methods and principles of learning to enable students to meet their goals.
- Prepare and deliver instructional activities consistent with the Diocesan Catholic Standards of Learning.
- Successful completion criminal background check.
- Teaching certification -OR- ability to obtain certification -OR- ability to develop a written professional development plan that leads to degree/certification.
- Complete the Virtus: Protecting God's Children program and complete monthly online training bulletins.

Please submit:

- A completed diocesan teacher application <https://diojefcity.org/employment-opportunities-in-our-catholic-schools/>
- Three letters of recommendation, one of which is from a pastor or minister.
- Transcripts of undergraduate/graduate studies
- Teaching certificate (if applicable)

For more information, please contact Alan Lammers, principal, at alammers@spppschoo.net or (660) 882-2589.